Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 32-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted structural cooperative relationships are: between the computer readable program code and means for digitizing sleep activity signals as stated in claim 32; between the computer readable program code and means for analyzing digitized said sleep as stated in claim 32; between the computer readable program code and means for sounding an alarm as stated in claim 32; between the computer readable program code and means for determining whether a wait margin has been selected as stated in claim 33; between the computer readable program code and means for setting said trigger time as stated in claim 33; between the computer readable program code and means for forwarding received sleep activity signals to a remotely connected server as stated in claim 34; between the computer readable program code and means for creating a prototype chart of said digitized brain activity signals as stated in claim 35; between the computer readable program code and means for labeling periods in said prototype chart as stated in claim 35; between the computer readable program code and means for sending each labeled said prototype chart to a local computer as stated in claim 35; and between the computer readable program code and means for causing said local computer to send said trigger to a local alarm device as stated in claim 36.

Claims 37-40 are rejected to as being dependent on a rejected base claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-23 and 25-31 allowed.
